

FIELD SERVICE ENGINEER

ABOUT US

Autoflame Service & Support has become the go-to name in the industry, providing expert servicing of commercial & industrial heating plants of all applications.

We offer the industry's most advanced plant room software solutions and burner product ranges, designed and manufactured in-house by our team here in the UK.

Our purpose is to support every boiler plant to exceed expectations innovatively, environmentally & economically.

WE'RE LOOKING FOR

An engineer with experience of working within the boiler and burner industry, and the ability to demonstrate a proven knowledge in a wide range of commercial and industrial heating systems including industrial steam plant.

The ideal candidate will have a positive attitude, a high level of initiative, alongside a flexible approach to fault finding in order to meet our customer's needs.

- Gas Safe qualifications COCN1, CCP1, CIGA1
- Suitable industry qualifications, HND/ONC or equivalent NVQ/C&G
- Preferred experience on steam boilers and water level controls
- Preferred Electrically qualified with 17th edition
- Competent in electrical fault finding and boiler controls
- Competent in pipework installation, steel, copper, plastic
- Competent in Health and Safety procedures
- Ability to work on their own in unfamiliar surroundings as well as part of a successful team
- Willing to be part of a call out rota for emergencies
- Willing to work away from home
- Good customer service skills
- Excellent written and communication skills
- Well presented
- Full driving licence

JOB BENEFITS

- Competitive salary
- Paid travel from home to site in addition to salary
- Overtime available & paid enhanced rates
- Company car & fuel card
- Company credit card, mobile phone & laptop
- Full training will be provided on Autoflame Equipment

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please apply by sending your resume to: hadmin@autoflame.com